A3 Template

1. Delete or hide the safe area layer

2. Ensure full bleed images extend to the outer red "bleed" margin

3. Ensure you don't export more than one page to a .pdf

4. Ensure your images are saved as CMYK for the best colour matching when printed

5. When you export your document make sure you include crop marks and 3mm bleed, then just export the file as a single page .pdf
